Judul : Faktor-Faktor Penyebab Minimnya Alokasi Anggaran Pertahanan Indonesia Ditinjau Dari Persepsi Ancaman Tahun 2005-2009

Fokus dari penelitian ini adalah mengenai faktor-faktor apa saja yang menyebabkan minimnya alokasi anggaran pertahanan Indonesia periode 2005-2009 dilihat dari persepsi ancaman. Metode penelitian yang digunakan dalam penelitian ini adalah penelitian kualitatif. Untuk menganalisa hal tersebut, penelitian ini menggunakan Alternative Hypotheses About The Growth-Military Expenditures Relationship dengan memilih pendekatan Fear yang terdiri dari empat indikator persepsi ancaman dalam melihat besaran anggaran pertahanan yaitu aggregate capabilities of the other states, geography, offense-defense balance dan perception of intentions. Penelitian ini menghasilkan temuan bahwa penyebab minimnya alokasi anggaran pertahanan Indonesia adalah offense-defense balance yang berimbang dan perception of intention yang jelas dalam melihat perkiraan ancaman.

Kata kunci:

Persepsi ancaman, anggaran pertahanan, Indonesia, aggregate capabilities, geography, offense-defense balance, perception of intentions.

Title : The Factors Which Are Causing Low Allocation of Indonesia Defence Budget Seen From Perception of Threat in 2005-2009 Period.

This research focuses on factors which are causing low allocation of Indonesia's defense budget in 2005-2009 period, seen from its perception of threat. Qualitative research method is used in this research. To analyze, this research uses Alternative Hypothesis About the Growth-Military Expenditures Relationship by selecting Fear Approach that consist of four indicators of threat perceptions in seeing quantity of defense budget, such as: aggregate capabilities of other states, geography, offense-defense balance and perception of intentions. This research finds that Indonesia's low defense budget is caused by the balance in offense-defense balance and clear perception of intention in seeing threat.
