ABSTRACT

The paper describes the significant role of the U.S. in the independence of Kosovo on February 17 , 2008, a new state that was formerly part of multi ethnic federal states of Yugoslavia. This sudden support is understandable considering serious violation of human rights under the regime Yugo's Slobodan Milosevic and the national interests under the U.S.'s hegemony in international politics. Seen in Muslim world the U.S. support of Kosovo independence is a controversy;

Keywords : declaration, independence, control, violation of human rights, controversy.
